Where ancient stone meets considered living

Nestled within a private pine forest in Sant Rafel, Casa del Bosque is a beautifully restored Ibiza farmhouse. Every detail has been considered: from the original exposed stone walls and hand-hewn timber ceilings to the lovingly curated objects and personal pieces that fill each room. This is not a rental property that feels like one.

The house sleeps up to 8 guests across four king bedrooms, with a separate annex ideal for guests who appreciate their own sanctuary. Accessed via electric gates, the property sits in a secluded and private setting among pine trees and open Ibiza countryside.

LOCATION

Sant Rafel, Ibiza

Sant Rafel de Sa Creu sits at the heart of the island — between Ibiza Town and San Antonio — in the quiet, elevated interior that most visitors never discover. Pine forests, red-earthed tracks, and the finca farms that have defined Ibiza for centuries.
